ENGLISH / BC GRADE 8 / 9

Write a clear paragraph

Develop one idea with a relevant example and explanation.

English Language Arts 8-9 · writing support

01 Choose one main point

Make a claim that can be explained within one paragraph. A topic sentence guides the reader toward that claim; avoid combining several unrelated arguments.

02 Support and explain

Give a concrete example or relevant evidence. Then explain how it supports your point. Evidence does not explain itself, and repeating the topic sentence is not analysis.

03 Revise for connection

Read the paragraph aloud. Remove sentences that do not support the main point. Use transitions only when they show a real connection, such as contrast or cause.

Worked example

Original model paragraph

A shared study goal can help a group stay focused. For example, a group might agree to solve three equations before discussing answers. This gives everyone a clear task and a reason to compare methods. A small plan can make the session more purposeful.

Watch out: Adding more sentences does not automatically add support. Prefer one specific example over several vague statements.

Try it. Then check it.

Work through these questions before looking at the answers.

1. Write a topic sentence about a helpful study habit.

2. Add one concrete example and explain its connection.

3. Revise: "Studying is good. It is nice. It helps a lot."

Answer key

1. Possible answer: Reviewing yesterday's mistakes helps me notice patterns in my work.

2. Possible support: I noticed that I repeatedly forgot negative signs, so I began checking each sign before submitting. This explains a specific benefit.

3. Possible revision: Reviewing mistakes makes my next attempt more accurate. When I corrected a repeated sign error, I could solve similar questions without making the same mistake. Other well-supported answers are valid.
